ROYAL GABOON TO MAKE DEBUT

Comic Sheet Guaranteed to Convulse College With Laughter Upon its Initial Appearance in June.

"PUNK" MULFORD IS EDITOR

The Royal Gaboon, Hamilton's new humorous magazine, will make its initial appearance before the College at Commencement. A large staff of editorial writers and illustrators is working hard to get all the material in shape. They expect the hearty support of the entire undergraduate body in making the publication a success. With the steady increase in enrollment, Hamilton can easily support a magazine of this type.

The publication will consist of thirty-two pages of wit and humor, profusely illustrated. The college at large is asked to contribute liberally to its columns by supplying jokes, cartoons, and poetry. Any man possessing artistic ability should submit a cover design to the board as soon as possible. It is hoped that the work of the board and art staff will be supplemented to a large degree by work submitted in competition. The price of the magazine will be thirty-five cents.

Leo S. Mulford, '22, is Editor-in-Chief of the publication and LeRoy B. Sherman, Jr., '22, is Business Manager. Associate managers are A. K. Edie, '22, and Dean Alfange, '22. W. H. Farrand, '22, is Circulation Manager; and Burton Price, W. P. Fenn, and J. K. Willard, all of '23, are Assistant Managers. The board consists of K. B. Turner, F. W. Smith, R. Mason, C. T. Keane, Jr., and W. C. Stone, all of '22. The Art Staff for the first issue includes T. C. Paton, '21, W. C. Macey, '22, Henry Severin, Jr., '22, Fred L. Palmer, '23, L. Seaver, '23, and Arnold Hall, '23.

Competition begins immediately for election to the board. Men from the three lower classes will be elected in June, their selection depending on the quality and amount of material submitted for the June issue. Manager Sherman wishes each crowd to send out a competitor for the office of Assistant Business Manager. This competition will last through the winter of 1921–1922.

ENDOWMENT DRIVE PASSES HALF-MILLION MARK

Campaigns in Four Cities Help Swell Total—Drives in Other Districts Get Under Way.

The endowment drive for a Greater Hamilton has netted over half a million dollars to date. The latest campaigns have been in Rochester, Albany, Binghamton, and Utica. Returns from these districts are very encouraging. With the start of campaigns in Watertown, Buffalo, and Chicago, the total should increase materially in a short time. The campaign in Watertown started last Friday, and that in Buffalo starts early this week.

On May 25 Dr. Ferry will journey to Chicago, where he will be present at a dinner that will start the drive in that section. Many letters have been received from alumni in outlying districts asking to be permitted to subscribe, and already $10,000 have been received from such sources.

The returns to date from the various districts follow:

General Education Board,	$200,000
Board of Trustees,	181,000
Campus (undergraduates and faculty),	48,000
Rochester,	12,000
Albany,	7,000
Utica,	18,000
Binghamton,	13,000
New York City,	100,000
Scattering,	10,000
Total,	$589,000

NEW LITERATURE COURSE

A new course will be offered in the Department of Literature next year. The course, which is designated by the numerals, 11-12, will consist of work in American and in modern literature. The prerequisite for this work will be English Literature 1-2. Professor Ristine will conduct the course.

The work of the first term will consist of a rapid survey of American Literature, for the most part that of the last century. In the second term modern literature, including that of America, England, and France, will be studied.

—Fred G. Yeandle, '19, is taking graduate work at Yale. Until after June 22nd, his address is 70 Yale Station, New Haven, Conn.

HAMILTON DEFEATS YELLOW IN LOOSELY PLAYED GAME

Rochester Bows in Defeat After Overcoming Lead Gained by Buff and Blue in First Inning—Pitchers Hit Hard—Game Marred by Many Errors—Moffat Again in Line-up.

The Buff and Blue triumphed over the Rochester nine last Saturday on the home grounds by a score of 10 to 8. Many errors and frequent hits made crossing the plate a comparatively easy task for both teams. The best brand of ball was turned out in the last four innings, when both teams tightened up and scoring became less frequent. Gifford's pitching and the dependable support of the outfield were responsible for the Buff and Blue's success. "Shimmy" Moffat was back in the game after recovering from injuries received in an automobile accident over a week ago. A large crowd of sub-freshmen and undergraduates witnessed the game.

Rochester made one run in the first when Green singled and reached second on an error. Kreag fouled out. Green scored on another error.

Hamilton managed to get a good start in their half of the first. Hunter reached second on a wild pitch to first. Campbell singled and brought Hunter home. Moffat smashed out a double and Campbell scored. Moffat went to third on Pritchard's sacrifice. May's single brought Moffat in. After taking second on a passed ball, May reached third. Davis sacrificed. Cowan walked and stole second. May came home, and Cowan got to third on a wild throw. He later scored on another wild throw. Meehan fanned and the inning ended with the score 5 to 1.

In the second inning, Harbison drove out a triple and brought in Peck. Gleason and Cahill fanned and Green flied to Campbell.

Rochester made two more runs in the third. Gifford went to the mound in place of Warren. The visitors made two runs in the fourth and two in the fifth, but failed to score in the remainder of the game.

Hamilton again got the lead in the fourth. Gifford was hit by the pitcher, and stole second. Campbell singled and brought in Gifford. Moffat was hit by pitcher. Pritchard singled and Campbell reached home. May drove one to center bringing in Moffat and Pritchard. Davis flied to short.

In the sixth inning, Cowan took Meehan's place on third. May moved to left field, and Price took May's position in right.

Another run was added to Hamilton's list when May singled in the seventh; Davis drove a hard one to the left garden which Harris fumbled, allowing May to score.

Rochester tried hard to overtake the Buff and Blue. In the ninth "Doc" Fauver sent Wallace in as a pinch-hitter in place of Harris. The move was ineffectual, however, for Wallace whiffed.

The score follows:

LANGTRY, '23, ELECTED INSTRUMENTAL CLUB LEADER

At the annual election of the Instrumental Club on Wednesday morning, May 11, Charles S. Langtry, '23, was elected leader for the next year to succeed William Lewis Pritchett, '21.

The Instrumental Club will be enlarged next year, and an entirely different type of "jazz" music will be used, since the loss of talent has rendered the old type impracticable. The club will lose five men by graduation. These losses must be made up from the lower classes and from the incoming Freshman Class.

In addition to the instruments already in use, Langtry plans to add a xylophone, providing anyone can be found who can play one. The trap drums will also be back next year, and Langtry is planning to use more banjos.

AVALANCHE OF RUNS DEFEATS BUFF AND BLUE

Syracuse Has Easy Time With Hamilton and Runs up Score of 14–0—Hamilton Gets Only Two Hits.

Last Tuesday afternoon the Buff and Blue baseball team suffered defeat for the second time at the hands of Syracuse. The final score was 14-0. The ability of Syracuse and the inability of Hamilton to hit the ball were very noticeable. Syracuse made seventeen hits including two homers, while Hamilton made only two singles.

Perry started the game in the pitching box, but Gifford took his place in the fifth. Mulchy covered second base in place of Moffat, who is still out of the game on account of injuries. Murray of Syracuse was put out of the game in the seventh inning after an argument with the umpire. The Buff and Blue fielders have never been kept so busy as they were in this game. The score:

WAR DEPARTMENT TO RUN SPECIAL TRAINING CAMPS THIS SUMMER

Under a provision of the Army Reorganization Act and subject to an appropriation in the pending Army Bill, the War Department will hold a series of military training camps for civilians in 1921. These camps will be maintained for a period of four weeks during the summer. The object of the camps, as stated in a War Department circular, is to develop closer national and social unity, to teach the privileges and duties of American citizenship, to stimulate interest in military training as a benefit to the individual and as a vital asset in the problems of national defense.

Men between the ages of 16 and 35 are eligible for admission to the camps. The government meets the full expenses of each man, including transportation, subsistence, quarters, uniforms, equipment, laundry service, medical and dental care.

The program calls for the initiation of young men into the conditions of camp life and the elementary duties of the soldier. Stress will be laid on physical development through out-of-door sports and games. Expert and individual medical attention will aim at the removal of minor bodily defects. Social recreation will be afforded through all kinds of lectures, vaudeville, moving pictures, amateur and dramatic musical entertainment.

Detailed information and enrollment blanks may be obtained from The Military Training Camps Ass'n., 210 Mallers Bldg., Chicago.

REORGANIZATION OF PRESS BOARD PLANNED

Positions on Board to be Competitive —Quicker Reports Promised on Games Away From Hill

Chairman Farrand of the Press Board has made new plans for the competition for membership on the Board. He expects to have a sophomore instead of a freshman competition. The reason for this is that the freshmen do not know the men on the Hill and would not be able to get an assignment as quickly as a sophomore. At the spring elections a number of sophomores will be elected to the Board. Their work during their junior year will be on a competitive basis and the two who do the best work will be nominated for chairman.

The Board hopes to secure two permanent rooms on the Hill, which can be used for the combined offices of Life, Lit, Hamiltonian, and the Press Board. The advantage of this is that the office will remain in the same place from year to year, and will not change when the editors of the different publications change, as has been the case formerly.

A bulletin board will be erected, on which the results of games played away from the Hill will be posted. Hereafter, when any of Hamilton's teams are playing out of town a member of the Board will accompany them. At different times during the contest, messages will be sent from the field of action to keep the men on the Hill informed of the progress of the contest. This plan was followed to some extent at the Rochester track meet and its efficiency will increase with experience. In the past it has been late at night, and even the next morning in some cases, before the College has obtained accurate information as to the outcome of a game. This disadvantage will be overcome if the plans of Chairman Farrand are successful.

There was at one time a publicity board that carried on the same work that the Press Board expects to do. If a man gets an honor in the College, the Board will send news of it to some paper in the town where the man lives.

The Royal Gaboon, an Impossibility

The initial appearance of The Royal Gaboon is announced for next month at Commencement. This is Hamilton's first attempt to put forth a strictly humorous publication, similar to those of many other colleges and universities that have already entered the field. Upon the appearance of this first issue of The Royal Gaboon, we shall know whether the members of Pi Delta Epsilon were justified in their assumption that Hamilton has the material to support such a publication.

The small size of the College and the present list of publications rather incline one to believe that there is a large chance for failure. The work can easily devolve upon the few men who are at present actively engaged upon one or more papers.

If such is the case, we predict a very short life for The Royal Gaboon.

Hamilton needs a humorous publication. There is a definite place for The Royal Gaboon upon the campus. There is no doubt that it will be received with delight and acclaim by the undergraduates. But as we have said above, the work of issuing this magazine cannot rest solely upon the already overburdened shoulders of eight or ten men.

That is where the undergraduates must step in. They must do more than hail the appearance of The Royal Gaboon. They must be actively engaged in making it a success. This can only be done by taking an active interest that will result in one thing —contributions.

With enthusiastic support of this nature The Royal Gaboon will spring into life this June. It will emerge from its present embryonic state a full-fledged college comic.

CHARLATAN PERFORMANCE IN UTICA A SUCCESS

Program of Three One-act Plays Given at New Century Auditorium Under Auspices of Wellesley Club.

The Charlatans put on three one-act plays last Thursday evening in the New Century Auditorium under the auspices of the Utica Wellesley Club. There was a large and enthusiastic audience present. The plays presented were: The Last Man In, Suppressed Desires, and The Boy Comes Home.

In the Last Man In, William H. Spice, Jr., did a clever bit of acting in a difficult and demanding role. He was perfectly cast, with his semi-drunken, drawling voice, as the prodigal son, returning after eleven years to his parents. Others in the cast were Russell G. Miller, Arthur J. Doyle, Thomas B. Pope, William M. Griffith, and J. Lester Albertson.

Suppressed Desires was next on the program. William B. Baer in the role of Mabel, sister of the would-be psychoanalyst, easily won the heart of the audience. Mabel's powers with the new psychology were effectively presented. William M. Griffith as Henrietta did full justice to that part, as did Arthur J. Doyle in the role of Stephen Brewster.

The Boy Comes Home was ably done by Thomas B. Pope, who made a strong appeal to his audience. The remainder of the cast included William M. Griffith, William M. Pottle, William G. Lewis, Jr., and J. Lester Albertson.

Spice o' Life

Coach Squires: "Where's Kelly? Where's Kelly?"

Terry Howland: "I'll bite. Where's Kelly?"

In explaining why he is living in a small town of this state, an alumnus says: "A teacher was once describing Heaven alluringly. At the end of her talk she asked all the good boys who wanted to go to heaven to raise their hands. All did but Sammy. Asked to explain, he said, 'Every night, Pop, he's sore. He says business is going to hell, and I want to go where the business is'."

Sam: "Ah done heard dat dey find Columbus' bones."

Sambo: "Lawd, Ah never knew he was a gamblin' man."

—Jester.

"Drink to me only with thine eyes," sang the sweet young thing.

"I'm sorry," answered Clarence, "but I left my glasses at home."

—Goblin.

"Bill is going to retire from business for five years."

"Oh, I've heard him say that before."

"Yes, but the judge said it this time."—London Opinion.

"You had to hold me up to do it", said the sweet young thing after the big, tall man had stolen a kiss.

"They say whiskey shortens a man's life."

"Yes, but he sees twice as much in the same length of time."—Siren.

Our Own Answer Man

I am a mind reader. I ask a question, hear your verbal answer, and read your mental answer. I tried it on the campus the other day. This is the curious result:

Ques: Have you a match?
Verbal: Sorry—not one left.
Mental: Go to hell—do I look like a cigar store?

Ques: Pass your exam?
Verb: Oh, no—flunked it badly.
Ment: Sure, I must have sailed through like a kite.

Ques: Do you know that girl standing over there?
Verb: Sure—I know every Jane around here.
Ment: Gee, no—I wish I did.

Ques: Who you bringing to the dance?"
Verb: Oo—a little cuckoo—wait till you see her.
Ment: God knows—anybody I can grab.

Ques: You getting pretty good marks?
Verb: Well—not so very—but I manage to pull through.
Ment: You confounded idiot, don't you see my Phi Beta Kappa key?

Ques: May I see you home, young lady?
Verb: Well, I don't really—you may if you wish.
Ment: For goodness sake, yes—and don't be a dead head—I'm just hungry for a little loving.

—Jester.

Campus Notes

The tennis match with Colgate, which was scheduled for Wednesday afternoon, May 18, at Hamilton, has been changed to Saturday, May 21. This date was changed on account of the Colgate Prom, which takes place the last three days of this week.

Prof. Russo, in Utica Monday evening, May 9, addressed a large audience at a celebration of the Sons of Italy in honor of Dante. He compared the great Italian genius with Homer, Virgil, and Shakespeare, and gave his reasons for considering Dante superior to them all.

Prof. F. H. Wood, on Thursday evening last, gave a talk on "Japan" before the Woman's Civic Club of Utica. In his address Dr. Wood assumed an optimistic view in regard to the relations between this country and Japan.

"Bane" Lawler has been confined to his home in Oneida for the past week as a result of infection from injuries received in sliding bases.

Dr. Ferry will be one of the principal speakers at the Father and Son Banquet in Clinton tomorrow evening, and Coach Prettyman is to be the chief official at the Father and Son Field Day in Clinton, Saturday.

A WORD of French.
* * *
WENT TO Paris.
* * *
AND THE first time.
* * *
HE HAD to get.
* * *
A HAIRCUT and shave.
* * *
HE PRACTICED an hour.
* * *
MAKING SIGNS.
* * *
IN THE looking glass.
* * *
SO THE French barber.

Carpe Diem

Too busy last week to concoct any of this scurrilous junk, but we're like a stub necktie, you can't keep us down. There are lots of new institutions in College, and Carpe wants to suggest another—a Purity Club for the college store. Stan Roberts is advocating this, because he can't stand the constant use of "darn" and "dog-gone" any longer. College men should be more careful of their language anyhow.

Demon Getman made the recent tennis trip, and got a date with an old friend. Get was busted, but he had to get back to the city Saturday night. So every time Mulford passed out money to the gang for food, Get pocketed his sheckels and refrained from eating. One plate of beans in three days—but Get got there. Ain't love grand?

We've got a new one on Al Kaiser. Al is becoming slightly—ahem—bald (High Honor—Political Science). He was at the barber's last week, and the scissor-jockey remarked, "I see your hair is getting a little thin on top." Whereupon Al replied, "Thank God for that, I never did care for fat hair.' (Note—Al didn't really say this, but we had to give the credit to someone, and Al's a good guy and hasn't been in Life in a long time.)

Society News

Charlie Keane says he got away strong at house-party. The Dekes claim this was because Charlie had his ears glued back, and only two women mistook him for an elephant.

Mr. H. Barstow Gates announces that he is now ready to take Schwarz' place as the college saxophonist. Mr. Gates is skilled in the classical and popular types of music, and Bennett vouches for the fact that he can play "Old Black Joe" and "Dardanella" with all the variations.

For the next Y. M. show, Manager Ballot announces that Little Lord Fauntleroy Chidester will sing his well known song "I Made Me What I Am Today, and I'm Darn Satisfied."

FIVE THOUSAND VOLUMES ADDED TO COLLEGE LIBRARY

Since June 1, 1920, approximately 5,000 volumes have been added to the college library. Of these, 1,000 have come from the library of the late Dr. H. C. G. Brandt.

One of the most interesting sets recently purchased is that entitled "Clio", which deals with ancient history and contains some very graphic pictures of restored buildings and temples. In addition to this, numerous volumes on Greek Art have been acquired.

The London weekly "Athenaeum", a review of classical, philological, and antiquarian scholarship started in 1828, and until recently edited by J. Middleton Murrray, was merged with the London "Nation" in February, 1921. It has recently been added to the college subscription list.

It is the belief of Prof. J. D. Ibbotson that Hamilton students should become better acquainted with the "London Mercury," which, in his estimation, contains some very comprehensive literary criticisms and reviews, besides notes on current history.

Alumni News

—Burton H. Woodford, '98, is now teaching modern languages in the high school at Pella, Iowa. After June 12, Mr. Woodford's address will be changed from 514 Broadway, Pella, Iowa, to 1915 East Main St., East Enid, Oklahoma.

—W. Stuart Holden, '17, is living in Ithaca, N. Y., where he teaches French and Spanish in the Cascadilla School. He does not expect to stay in Ithaca after the completion of the present school year.

—Salvator Nino, '20, is at present employed by the American Express Company, New York City, as Assistant Manager of the Translation Department. His work is translating the French, Spanish, Italian and Portuguese correspondence which is received in the company's international banking operations.

—Denton E. Brome, Jr., '09, has recently moved to Union, N. J., where he has a position as manager and coach of athletics at the Union High School.

—The alumni of Hamilton College of Washington, D. C., at a meeting held recently elected the following men as the officers for the ensuing year: President, Hon. Leroy Parker, '65, 1358 Perry St., N. W.; Secretary, Ralph W. Stone, '99, 2739 Macomb St.

—William T. Chapman, '03, of Orange, Calif., is now an extensive fruit-grower. His specialty is the raising of "Sunkist" lemons. He is also prominent in the affairs of his county, being Secretary of the El Modena Chamber of Commerce and Director of the Farm Bureau Agency of Orange County.

—Harold H. Reed, '19, who for the past year has been connected with the Baltimore branch of the Garlock Packing Company of which F. W. Griffith, '87, is head, expects soon to be transferred to the main office of the company at Palmyra, N. Y.

—W. Curtis Knox, '12, who has been in the employ of the Oneida Community, Ltd., for a number of years, is now representing that firm at Niagara Falls, Ontario, Can. He was formerly in the company's offices at Oneida, N. Y.

—C. Stanley Bergner, '16, who has just finished his Middler Course at the Auburn Theological Seminary, was on the Hill recently. Mr. Bergner will be the pastor of a country church at Orr, North Dakota, during the summer months.

—Wallace B. Johnson, '15, has recently moved from New York City to Little Falls, N. Y. His present address is 686 E. Monroe St., Little Falls, N. Y.

—Kenneth J. Brooks, '18, is now in Springfield, Mass., where he is Boys' Work Secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

—Richard U. Sherman, '05, is now a director of the new company of Harvey Fisk and Sons, Inc., Investment Bankers. This is a consolidation of the firms of Harvey Fisk and Sons, established 1862, and Blodgett, Hart and Company, Inc. Mr. Sherman was formerly vice-president of the latter firm .

With the Colleges

—A new method of selecting varsity managers has been adopted at Harvard. By the new plan the men will be selected for their personal merits, as was done in choosing officers in the army. The candidates will be rated on personality, executive ability, industry, reliability, efficiency and scholarship.

—The dreaded "Blue Laws" are slowly creeping into our educational centers in various forms. All tennis playing on Sunday has been prohibited in Harvard because the ecclesiastically inclined have been disturbed by the shouts of ardent cohorts of racket wielders.

—A supplement budget bill was recently introduced in the State Legislature of West Virginia which provides for a $300,000 gymnasium at the University of West Virginia.

—The football schedule of R. P. I. has been announced. It includes St. Lawrence, Hamilton, Northfield University, Stevens Institute, Rochester, Hobart, and Worcester Polytechnic.

WEATHER SMILES ON SUB-FROSH

Seventy–Five Men Visit Campus Friday and Saturday as Guests of College.

The annual week-end, devoted to the interests of the prospective students entering Hamilton College next September, has come and gone, leaving behind it a most successful record. About seventy-five students from the various high and preparatory schools throughout New York State were on the Hill over last Friday and Saturday with the idea of giving the College the "once–over".

The sub-freshmen began to arrive late Friday afternoon so that by 6:15, the time of the college dinner, practically all of them were assembled in Commons to partake of Commons food and to hear of the opportunities offered by the College. None of these were omitted in the entertaining talks given by Dr. Ferry and Dr. Chase, and by representatives of many of the prominent activities on the Hill. The fact that there is something for each man at Hamilton to do in addition to his studies, something for the sake of the College and for the sake of his own personal benefit, was strongly driven home by each speaker.

The twenty-second annual interscholastic contest in declamation held in the College Chapel on Saturday morning was one of the main events of the two-day program. Fourteen speakers from fourteen high schools of New York State appeared on the platform. Norman Lyon, of the West High School, Rochester, was awarded first prize. He spoke on "The Wilson of History". "A Great American President" was the title of the speech by John E. Bloomer, of the Central High School, Binghamton, the winner of the second prize.

In the afternoon the Hamilton baseball team triumphed over the Rochester nine by the score of 10 to 8. The track meet scheduled with Hobart for Saturday was cancelled at a date so late that it was impossible to secure a meet with another college.

"The Revenge of Tarzan", featuring Gene Pollard, was the picture offered by the Y. M. C. A. in Commons Saturday night. A comedy and a pictorial were shown in addition to the regular feature. An unfortunate breakdown of the moving picture machine caused many lengthy intermissions, which interrupted the thread of an otherwise interesting story.

A great many of the sub-freshm n remained on the Hill over Sunday as the guests of the fraternities which had entertained them on Friday and Saturday. Contrary to other years, the weather man provided ideal weather for a most successful week-end.

—Arthur M. Farmer, '07, is now office manager for the Dry Milk Company of Mexico, N. Y.

—Herbert H. Crumb, '05, is living at 206 Grant Ave., Endicott, N. Y. Mr. Crumb is the Superintendent of Schools in Endicott.

—G. Grant Jewett, '20, is salesman for the Chevrolet Motor Company in Utica. His address is 103 James St., Utica, N. Y.

—John M. Kingsbury, '20, is an employee at the Oneida Community, Ltd., in Kenwood, N. Y.

CHAPEL PREACHERS

The following is the list of chapel preachers for the rest of the term:

May 22—Rev. William P. Merrill, D.D., Brick Church, New York City.

May 29—Rev. Charles G. Sewell, Rye, N. Y.

June 5—Rev. George W. Owen, '99, Hyde Park, Mass.

June 12—Rev. Samuel K. Piercy, '98, White Plains, N. Y.

PLANS FOR ATHLETIC BUILDING APPROVED

Work Will be Started This Summer—Building to be Utilized for Football, Baseball, Track, and Hockey.

The new athletic building for Hamilton College will be started this summer. Full plans and all details with a few minor exceptions are completed and have been approved by the Hon. Elihu Root, Chairman of the Trustees Committee on Buildings and Grounds. Final preparations for the building will be finished shortly.

The new building will be one of the finest of its kind in the country. Some idea of its size may be gained from the fact that it will cover over twice as much ground as the present Carnegie Dormitory. It will stand on the site of the new hockey rink and will be parallel to the present quadrangle and on a line with the Chemistry laboratory. It will be of Gothic architecture. Baggs and Newkirk of Utica are the architects.

The building will be used for hockey, track, baseball, and football. The hockey rink which was built last fall, and on which Hamilton turned out an undefeated team, will be incorporated in the structure. The roofing will enable the team to have continued practice, and they will not be handicapped by snow or inclement weather.

The football team will also have the use of the building for indoor signal work. After the hockey season the baseball team will be able to practice daily indoors.

Another feature of the building will be the 220-yard track with an added straightaway which will give Hamilton an indoor track as large as any in the country. This will be a cinder track; whereas most other indoor tracks are made of wood, which handicaps men practising for outdoor work.
